

Autumn Quotes to Mix & Match

I'm so glad I live in a world with Octobers. – L.M.
Montgomery, Anne of Green Gables

Delicious autumn! My very soul is wedded to it, and if I were a bird I would fly about the earth seeking the successive autumns. – George Eliot

By all these lovely tokens
September days are here
With summer's best of weather
And autumn's best of cheer.

Autumn...the year's last, loveliest smile. – William Bryant

It was November--the month of crimson sunsets, parting birds, deep, sad hymns of the sea, passionate wind-songs in the pines. Anne roamed through the pineland alleys in the park and, as she said, let that great sweeping wind blow the fogs out of her soul. ~ L.M. Montgomery, Anne of Green Gables

The crickets felt it was their duty to warn everybody that summertime cannot last forever. Even on the most beautiful days in the whole year, the crickets spread the rumor of sadness and change. ~ E.B. White, Charlotte's Web

I cannot endure to waste anything so precious as autumnal sunshine by staying in the house. ~ Nathaniel Hawthorne

"I guess I'm just feeling Septemberish," sighed Chester. "It's getting towards autumn now. And it's so pretty up in Connecticut. All the trees change color. The days get very clear—with a little smoke on the horizon from burning leaves. Pumpkins begin to come out. ~ George Seldon, The Cricket in Times Square

Autumn carries more gold in its pocket than all the other seasons. ~ Jim Bishop

Just this once, in the very heart of the busiest of cities, everyone was perfectly content not to move and hardly to breathe. And for those few minutes, while the song lasted, Times Square was still as a meadow at evening, with the sun streaming in on the people there and the wind moving among them as if they were only tall blades of grass. – George Seldon, The Cricket in Times Square
